UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

Wayne Holloway, Petitioner	'08 CV 0861 JM AJB Case No.
v.	Request for Appointment of Counsel/Attorney (18 USCS 3006A, 28 USCS 1915(d))
John Marshall, Warden, Respondent.

To the presiding justice and its legal representatives of the federal district court, I the petitioner Wayne Holloway request this court for appointment of counsel. It's understood that the appointment of counsel will be very useful considering my incarceration status. The assign counsel can easily make a general appearance on behalf of petitioner, be dispositive of all necessary documents or transcripts, and deal with all the assumptions an otherwise prudent attorney would afford his client.

Declaration in Support

I the Petitioner Wayne Holloway declare the following :

(1) I'am an indigent litigate with no means of support

(2) I'am appearing in Propria Persona without access to legal material

(3) I'am Unnecessarily suffering from a verdict that occurred 15yr ago

(4) And due to the rapid prison overcrownding, any further stay would be detriment to my health and safety

Dated May 08, 2008

Respectfully Submitted
